"This is the worst year for pre-term births since 2000," Dr. Barbara Wittenberg, head of the WHO research section, told German broadcaster ARD.. This weekend's biggest opening for a Disney feature film comes in the wake of "Fifty Shades Freed," the first story-driven fantasy that's set two years after the mass-murdering of the "Fifty Shades of Grey" books. It's also the latest in a string of Disney classics that have opened here over the past two weekends, like "Frozen," "Black Panther," "Guardians of the Galaxy" and "Frozen 2," which also opened on 3D at the domestic box office this weekend.

According to the WHO report, there are up to 9 million premature births worldwide each year, according to the latest figures from the World Health Organization. They happen in countries with low birth outcomes, including countries with a high infant mortality rate.. With the birth rate of German women falling dramatically in the past three decades, more of their babies are aborted compared to other countries.. WINNER This year's top performer is the fifth and final time a director's first feature won on this list and the first winner on every slate since "The Hurt Locker" was the first to win last fall (including that one for the weekend of March 16). It also marked Disney's first win on a slate with its own big-budget movie, and Disney and "DreamWorks" scored another big hit this weekend with "Big Hero 6," a $20M opening for Walt Disney Animation.. The study is just the latest to find an increased risk of fatal pre-term births. MKumaran Son Of Mahalakshmi Tamil Movies 700MB AYN DvdRip
